INTERCONTINENTAL HOTELS GROUP
ANNOUNCES DISPOSAL OF UP TO 100% OF ITS INTEREST IN BRITVIC BY WAY OF INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

InterContinental Hotels Group PLC ('IHG' or the 'Company') today announces that it intends to dispose of part or all of its 47.5% interest in Britvic¹ ('Britvic') by way of an initial public offering (the 'Disposal' or 'IPO') of the Britvic shares.

IHG has been pursuing a strategy of focusing on managing and franchising hotels. In line with this strategy, in March 2004, IHG announced that it had reached an agreement in principle with the other Britvic shareholders (Pernod Ricard (then Allied Domecq), Whitbread and PepsiCo) to consider the disposal of their respective interests in Britvic by way of an IPO at any point between January 2005 and December 2008. IHG and the other Britvic shareholders have concluded that it is now appropriate to proceed with the IPO.

Due to the size of the IPO relative to IHG, the Disposal is conditional, inter alia, upon Shareholders' approval being obtained at an Extraordinary General Meeting. A formal notice of the meeting and the resolution to be proposed will be sent to shareholders shortly, together with a circular setting out further details of the disposal of Britvic. A separate letter (the 'Shareholder Letter'), expected to be posted on 25 November 2005, simultaneous with the publication of the Britvic price range prospectus, will detail the IPO price range and the number of Britvic shares to be sold by Britvic shareholders in the IPO, together with certain additional information. The Shareholder Letter, for regulatory reasons, will not be sent into the United States.

The Extraordinary General Meeting will be held at Lawrence Hall, The Royal Horticultural Society Halls, Greycoat Street, London SW1P 2QD at 10.30 am on 7 December 2005.
